Brokering & Luarte law firm advises small and medium size enterprises as well as independent businessmen and other people in the areas of international trade, environmental development, information & communication technologies, e-commerce, as well as international law and business law.

Our philosophy is to provide a high quality and personalized service to our clients. We commit ourselves with the development of our clients' business as well with the achievement of their goals.

Our clients are usually companies as well as businessmen, Chilean and foreigners, who are frequently not interested to hire the services of big law firms, because their rates are too high and their lack of personal touch. They are also not interested to use the usual consulting companies, because they do not know about international trade, international taxes and other more specialized subjects.

We work with a multi-disciplinary approach and a clear calling for issues that involve international relations, trying to establish a relation base on mutual trust and personalized contact with our clients.

Our partners have postgraduate studies and professional experience in Germany and Spain. This reflects on the interests and global vision that defines the day to day work at our law firm.

Burai-Kovács & Partners was established in 1989. The aim of the founders was to establish a law firm specialized in the needs of the economic actors, primarily satisfying the need for high-level legal expertise in the oil and gas industry and in the domestic and foreign trade sector. Our law firm also focuses on other areas of law that are important to businesses, such as corporate law, financial and tax law, labour law, competition law, intellectual property law, the judicial practice of courts and arbitration tribunals in those areas and, increasingly, EU law.

We continuously endeavor to become familiar with and understand the business activities and corporate culture of our Hungarian and foreign clients operating in different sectors of the economy. In so doing, we can rely on the assistance of our attorneys, who have many years of experience in commerce and industry and are familiar with the characteristics of the branches of business concerned, both in the domestic and the foreign business environments, as they have previously acted as in-house legal counsels to major industrial and foreign trade enterprises. We are thus well prepared to provide our clients with professional legal advice even on the most complex legal issues and to suggest them reasonable legal and business solutions which are feasible and practical at the same time. Burai-Kovács & Partners considers it important to provide legal services in English or German as well, at the same standard as our services performed in Hungarian.

During the era of the totalitarian regime, Iraq's economy was on the socialist side based in the principle that government solely owned treasure and business. When the Iraqi state established the new constitution that changed the entire direction of the state's economy into adopting the strategy of open and free market, and therefore created support for businesses, we launched the first private practice where we can provide legal services, business and judicial consultancies. This was the first new experience in the country where we provided legal, justice, and legislative activities and services in various litigations, including, analyses, consultancies, and/or representation of individuals, public or private institutions before courts and governmental departments, committees, special councils, and governmental or special commissions. We have expert attorneys that are specialized in all fields; lawyers specialized in drafting commercial and civil contracts with governmental and private institutions, and specialists to register civil organizations, national and foreign companies. We also handle cases related to immigration, including foreign labor. We possess an extensive knowledge of the legal and economic fields which enables us to provide analyses relevant to economic, legal, and administrative consultations regarding investment opportunities in Iraq.

Bacciardi and Partners, founded in 1974 by Enzo Bacciardi, is a unique law practice in that it is exclusively dedicated to counseling clients involved in some of the most challenging cross-border transactions and complex multi-jurisdictional deals and disputes.

Our areas of practise are exclusively limited to International Commercial Transactions Law, International Corporate Law and International Tax Law and International Customs and Transportation Law. Unlike most other medium-sized Italian law firms, where these practice areas constitute only a fraction of the firm's overall practice, here at Bacciardi and Partners we only deal with these fields of Law. Our clients are thus assured that they receive advice from professionals who are deeply entrenched in their fields of practice and who have, throughout their professional years, concentrated exclusively on the legal fields pertinent to international business and commercial practice, an indispensable tool in our handling of cross border transactions.

Another unique feature of Bacciardi and Partners is our multilingual work force. All of our highly qualified lawyers are also either native English speakers or fluent speakers of English and/or French and/or Spanish. We believe that our staff's language skills, coupled with a deep understanding of political and cultural awareness in addressing our clients' legal needs, are crucial to our global perspective and a clear example of what it means to be international business lawyers.

Company practice areas: Our law firm covers all aspects of Commercial, Corporate and Tax Legal Services.

The nucleus of PLIP was the small law office which the founder of PLIP started in Amman, Jordan in 1994. Within few years the office witnessed a vast growth due to the hard work of its staff and the excellent reputation it enjoyed over the years. In 2002 the office was transformed into Petra for Law and Intellectual Property. Through the years of practice, PLIP has been considered as among the better known law firms in the country for its integrity, credibility, effectiveness and efficiency, as well as its diversified and broad range of services. The firm provides legal services its clients with consistency and competency, all integrated in one office.

PLIP is astute in various areas of the legal profession. Associates at PLIP possess not only the legal credentials, but also the practical experience in their respective field of specialty. Thus, the firm is uniquely qualified to perform required services with reliance and certitude.

The services of the firm are retained by various, highly regarded organizations and establishments, locally and internationally. We do care about confidentiality of information on services provided by our law firm, which is one of our extensive important policies to insure confidentiality by applying strict mechanisms to guarantee the higher protection of client's secrecy.

Kiptinness & Odhiambo Associates is a Regional law firm focused on six important sectors.

From our location in Nairobi, the gateway to Transport and Communication Hub of East and Central Africa, we view our practice through the following sectors: Technology, Media and Telecommunications; Corporate and Financial Services; Projects (Energy and Infrastructure) and Real Estate Transactions; Tax and Investment; Dispute Resolution and Administrative Processes; Private Client Practice

For our clients this means they benefit from a law firm fully focused on their sector, wholly understanding of the challenges that they face and completely tuned in to their needs. We take a long term view and we take time to understand the distinct demands that each client faces. This allows us to build a bespoke service to suit each relationship. Our approach means that we are consistent in the standard of excellence we bring to our service and flexible enough to build into each relationship value that is meaningful for each client.

We believe that one size does not fit all when it comes to adding value to client relationships. Building value through Collaboration and Talent: Collaboration and flexibility is as vital within our firm as it is in our work with clients. We aim to attract diverse range of professional people to create a rich pool of talent so that we may be able to make a direct contribution to the value that we create, a real difference to the services that we provide and a unique dimension to the advice that we give.

We as lawyers have gained great experience through the prolonged work in judge and lawyership in the field of civil, criminal and administrative law, and have shown success in numerous cases.

The Republic of Kosovo has a civil law system which is also sometimes known as Continental European law system. The central source of law that is recognized as authoritative is codifications in a constitution or statute passed by legislature, to amend a code. This system of Kosovo has experienced several changes throughout the years and is currently a system that includes prominent bodies and branches that help Kosovo enact adequate laws and conduct proper legal procedures.

The founding partners of Abreu & Marques, jointly with other lawyers initiated a joint practice in 1972, thereby founding the partnership. The law firm was incorporated in 1980, immediately upon the advent of the publication of legislation which allowed for the incorporation of these types of firms.

It was a pioneering firm in the internationalization of the Portuguese legal practice, opening a branch in London in 1987. In 1992 it opened an office in Funchal to handle local matters in connection with the Madeira International Business Center. Within the scope of its continued expansion the firm has presently associations with offices in Angola, Mozambique and correspondents throughout Europe, in the United States and in Brazil.

In 2001, Abreu & Marques e Associados integrated the law firm Luís Vinhas, Isabel Garcia e Associados, with experience in the areas of commercial law and in civil law litigation. As a result, the firm adopted for a period the name of Abreu & Marques, Vinhas e Associados.

In the latter part of its third decade of continued existence, Abreu & Marques e Associados, with the natural renovation of its partners, lawyers and staff, remains focused in what has been its guiding strategy since incorporation: giving technically sustainable solutions for the resolution of the matters assisted within the practice, adding value to the interests of its clients which, being the reason of its very existence, are its absolute priority.

The Law Office Golubović was founded in 1985 and since then it has conducted successful business operations. It is specialised in business law (corporate law). The office renders legal services to various business companies: from representation before judicial and other government authorities, consulting for status issues to specific services, such as privatisation procedure and coordination of post-privatization operations or conducting bankruptcy proceedings.

Legal System:

The legal system in Serbia is based upon the Civil Law system. In the Civil Law system, there are two types of judges: a judge who directs trial proceedings and also an investigative judge who oversees the investigation of a case. The investigative judge conducts interrogations of suspects, issues rulings at detention hearings and decides if there is enough evidence to charge a suspect with a crime. If so, the case then goes to the trial judge, who conducts the trial and, often in collaboration with other judges, determines guilt or innocence.

Founded in 1947 by Mr. Pradit Premyothin, Dharmniti Law Office (DLO) has become one of the most well-respected law offices in Thailand providing quality legal services for both local and international clients.

Prior to Mr. Premyothin's death in 1977, he directed that the practice should continue under the name of "Dharmniti" (the Thai word for law with integrity) maintaining the spirit with which the firm was founded.

In 1978, under the guidance of Mr. Buth Khandhawit, a former Supreme Court Judge, DLO became a limited company and embarked upon a program of expansion to more adequately meet the requirements of its clients.

DLO is a wholly owned subsidiary of Dharmniti PLC, a publicly listed company that comprises several leading professional companies in Thailand providing a wide array of professional services including accounting, auditing, seminars, training, information technology and publishing. The vast resources of these affiliated companies significantly enhance the quality of DLO's legal services.

Legal System:

The legal system of Ukraine is based on the framework of civil law, and belongs to the Romano-Germanic legal tradition. The main source of legal information is codified law. Customary law and case law are not as common, though case law is often used in support of the written law, as in many other legal systems. Historically, the Ukrainian legal system is primarily influenced by the French civil code, Roman Law, and traditional Ukrainian customary law.
